President’s Statement

Greetings woodcarvers! I’m feeling better now and a big thank you to Vice President Heather for stepping in! (I hear he did a great job!) Now that we are approaching August, it’s full steam ahead for festival season! Please try and help out if you can! The more the merrier! I really feel like our show this year is going to be better! I’m receiving a lot of outside interest and believe the date change will help us! Please get your applications filled out and returned to me ASAP! The festivals and our show will be our main focus for the remainder of the year! See you at the meeting!

Doug

To help with our planning, we ask that club members register for the show as soon as possible. We are going to have gourd carvers attend this year and plan to add them to the competition. The Show Committee will meet and develop the gourd carving categories for the Club to approve.

Ozark Empire Fair: The fair starts on July 25th and runs through August 3rd. Club members can go and demonstrate on any of those days. A signup sheet is available for those going. Parking passes and fair tickets were handed out to those going to demonstrate. If you need passes and tickets, please contact Doug Bibles.

New Business: The festival season is fast approaching, and we need volunteers to help. We will demonstrate and sell raffle tickets on the club project at the Hillbilly Fair, Sept. 21-22; the Eldon Turkey Festival, Sept. 28; the Art Guild in Lebanon, Oct. 5; the Apple Festival, Oct. 5-6; the Fiber Arts, Camdenton, Oct. 12; and the Heritage Days in Warsaw, Oct.19-20.

Loren Woodard is a Stubai dealer and gives Club Members 20% off Short tools, 15% off Long tools.
